MESSAGE

It is a matter of honour for STAT Trade Times to organize 3rd edition of AIR CARGO INDIA 2010 from February 2nd to 4th 2010 at Mumbai. This event is looked forward for participation by various transport and logistics sector industries internationally. Within span of two editions this events has made a mark for itself in worldwide Air Cargo Business.

Though, at present, there is economic slowdown internationally, an impetus by Air Cargo Industry will provide necessary effort in reviving the economic growth scenario. With professionalization and competence growing in this industry, the consumer shall be the final gainer.

Our institute shall continue to provide necessary guidance and support to this event and for promoting logistics and transport in national and international arena. I am sure that this 3rd International event shall be even more successful and popular than the previous two efforts.
