

Biography – Robert S. Arendal

---

Robert S. Arendal is educated in Denmark, Switzerland, Sweden and has a diploma in Business Administration. He has several other Business diplomas including Decision Making, Time Management and Presentation Skills from MCE in Belgium as well as IT Solutions from the Harvard University, Boston, USA.

He started as a Shipping Trainee in Denmark and the USA, has since held various position within the air cargo industry until he joined – in 1970 – cargolux airlines international s.a., as part of the team of founding fathers in Luxembourg. He served cargolux for 29 years, progressing from Sales Manager to Sr. Vice President for Sales, Marketing and Cargo Services as well as Deputy CEO during the later years with the company.

He left cargolux in 1998, when he started his own company - ra associates [www.raa.lu]. He has also been an Advisor to the Chairman of Atlas Air, USA until 2001 as well as Senior Advisor to the President of Worldwide Flight Services (a global air cargo handling company) until end 2006.

Presently he is also member of the Supervisory Board of the Cool Chain Group [www.coolchaingroup.com], as well as Chairman of the Cool Chain Association [www.coolchain.org].

He was a representative for the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg in the ASEM appointed Asian-European Vision Group and the Asian-European Business Forum (1998-99) and since many years a Goodwill Ambassador for Copenhagen [www.ambassador.net – www.woco.dk – www.copcap.dk].