Slavey Djahov is the Regional Head of Airfreight MEAC (Middle East, Africa and the CIS) based in Dubai responsible for all operational and commercial airfreight activities for Panalpina in this region. He started his career with Panalpina in late 2012 and deals with a wide variety of complex challenges as well as progressing great opportunities that such a vast geographic region. He has overseen the opening of many stations such as Morocco, Egypt and Kenya.

His career in the air freight industry began in 1991 with Expeditors and held different positions in Europe and the Middle East

Slavey is also an Alumni of the American University of Beirut